

Advanced Developing Field leaders in Industrial Security Program

Content of the program

- The concept of modern industrial security
- Duties and responsibilities and implementation
- Security management in the field
- The requirements & basics of leadership in security field
- Decision making and problem-solving
- Modern methods of supervision & inspection security
- Professional management of behaviors of security
- Management of security dealing
- Planning, organization and leadership
- Modern security in protection facilities
- Security control tools
- Emergency management and disaster situations
- Security risk management
- Managing people
- Time management

Training system

- The training includes theoretical and field
- Training Movies
- Workshops

Test

- Tests in the first program evaluation
- Final test of the program
- Tests of leadership and management of a week

Objectives of the program

- Prepare the field leaders in security
- Developing leadership in security
- Raising the Security skills, time and tasks
- increase the capacity of a professional in the security requirements
- Increase the possibilities of security control and solve security problems

Accredited program

- Program is supported quality of ISO 10015 training and management 9001
- Program qualified and certified from the Academy of Management Studies London – Britain
- Program is supported from the College of Cambridge Training – Britain

Certification program

- local certificate from the Academy of National Training
- International certificate from the Academy of Management Studies London – Britain
- International certificate from the College of Cambridge Training – Britain

Duration of the program

- From 11 to 22 March 2012 - 2 weeks

Venue

- United Arab Emirates - Dubai - 5 star hotel include a buffet between the times of the lecture, lunch

The investment fees 5850$